We have no increase of Members this year

 charter Members.... With trembling hand and sick of heart it becomes my sad duty to chronicle the demise of Mrs Isaac Lantry

 one of our ³⁰⁻⁴⁴ Jewish Mothers in Israel &
 our Community, having been the 1st V.P. of our Society, active and ever ready to assist in the noble work of charity.
 in ^{her} the last years she was a great sufferer
 and death came as relief to her.

Our sister Mrs Dr Rosenthal in the prime of life, and apparent good health was suddenly called away from her ideal home, to leave a devoted husband and beloved children who mourn the loss of an devoted wife and a darling mother, the members of our Society to hereby tender to the bereaved

Families our heartfelt sympathy and pray to God, that the Pain of Counselors be poured out on to them so that they be able to bare up the terrible shocks they have received.

We are also in sympathy with Mrs S. Redekelind and family and Mrs A. Wilson and family who mourn the demise of Husband and Father.

May God in his mercy spare us
from all evil.

The L. H. B. S. held a delightful social meeting. Since this was purely a social meeting, no business was transacted. The object of this meeting was to try to revive a seemingly lapsed interest on the part of many of the members. By bringing together in a social way, all the members of a few new - members (those who had never or seldom previously partaken of the Society's hospitality) it was hoped that a renewed interest in the work might be awakened. Fifty invitations were extended, to which thirty - three responded. This excellent program was presented:

After the program, all the guests repaired to the Library, where divine refreshments were served.

Benevolence and society were represented today in the jubilee celebration of the Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent association when forty-seven ladies gathered in honor of the event at the Anthony hotel. This important society of this city has ever been devoted to quiet works of charity, though there has been at times a social element introduced in honor of various anniversaries. Today an elaborate and beautifully appointed luncheon at the Anthony hotel at 1 o'clock was to do honor, not only to the fiftieth anniversary of the organization, but to the three charter members who are still living, to recall the early days of the society when the country needed just such help as that band of unselfish and noble women gave. "Nothing has been more significant of the united purpose of the association than its keeping in office its various presidents, many of whom have served many years. Mrs. Joseph Lohman, the present highest officer of the association, has served in the same capacity for nearly ten years, though not entirely in successive terms. Other former presidents are Mrs. Alex. Lauferty, now living in Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Max B. Fisher, Mrs. Aaron Rothschild, Mrs. Samuel Chaska and Mrs. Ben Lehman. The three charter members now living and who were able to be present at the luncheon are Mrs. M. Lamley, who served many years as secretary of the society; Mrs. S. Freiburger and Mrs. E. Rosenthal. The presidents and charter members were seated at the honor table and others at small tables. The present officers of the association are president, Mrs. Joseph Lohman; vice president, Mrs. Isidor Lehman; secretary, Mrs. Louis Heilbronner, and treasurer, Mrs. Ralph Clark. There were also present several out of town visitors, Mrs. Simon Straus, Mrs. Isaac Straus, Mrs. Seelig and Mrs. Schloss, all of Ligonier, and Mrs. Louis Meyer, of South Whitley. All of these ladies were formerly members of the society. A feature of the luncheon was the reading of letters and telegrams from people not living here, who are children of charter members. Many of these letters contained gifts for the association. The floral decorations of the luncheon, in charge of the Flick Floral company, were in gold and white. On the large table in its center stood an effective combination of crystal vases filled with small yellow chrysanthemums, known as the sweetness variety. On the small tables stood low gold baskets of yellow chrysanthemums. At each plate stood a favor of a tiny gold basket filled with nuts. White tulle bows tied the handles. Another decorative feature introduced as a souvenir were yellow satin ribbon on the order of a badge. On these were printed verses appropriate for the occasion, written by M. Frank and they were sung to the tunes of Auld Lang Syne and Lauterbach, just at the close of the luncheon, which was served in the banquet hall of the hotel. The three charter members wore corsage bouquets of violets tied with ribbons, the gifts of the society, and most fragrant remembrances of the day. After the luncheon the Baileys trio gave a program of chamber music, thus bringing to a delightful close one of the most beautiful anniversary gatherings ever held in the city. The committee on arrangements for the affair was composed of Mrs. Theodore Frank, general chairman; Mrs. Louis Heilbronner, Mrs. A. Rothschild, Mrs. Julius Nathan, Mrs. Joseph Lohman, Mrs. Ben Lehman and Mrs. Isidor Lehman. An interesting historical sketch of the society was read by Mrs. M. Lamley, as follows:

"Mrs. President and Ladies: I have been requested by our worthy president and committee to give you a brief abstract of the history of our Ladies' Hebrew Benevolent society members who are meeting here today to do honor to its fiftieth anniversary, and to the charter members in particular, of which I am one of the three remaining. I have accepted reluctantly, as it is a great effort on my part to do justice to the subject assigned to me in the present condition fate has seen fit to place me. But as one of the committee so sweetly remarked to me, Mrs. Lamley, the society is your child; this reminded me that a mother's duty never ceases. Though our hearts are sore, the mind weakened, nerves unstrung and we are estranged from our familiar surroundings, our feelings remain unchanged towards the object we once loved. To some of you ladies I may appear almost a stranger; I myself feel a stranger in my own land. Ladies, I beg your indulgence for my effort, simple and pure.

"Statistics are generally a bore, but I will try to be brief. If anything of importance has been omitted, I trust for your consideration.

"This child was born November 4, 1861, fifty years ago, during the administration of our immortal Lincoln, when slavery was to be abolished which separated the north from the south and war was proclaimed.

Organized Relief Society.

"We followed the ranks of all America. A meeting was called to organize a soldiers' relief society. Every married woman in our community responded. All worked diligently for the worthy cause. Boxes of linen, clothing, provisions, etc., were sent out to the boys in blue who had left home and family to battle for and save the flag of our glorious republic. When peace reigned once more between the north and the south, when the weapon was exchanged for the plow, our work was also finished. We then felt that a clasp was wanted to fasten the chain of social and charitable ties and this organization was founded. Twenty-three ladies signed the constitution. They were Mrs. F. Nirdlinger, Mrs. Sam. Nirdlinger, Mrs. S. Freiburger, Mrs. I. Lauferty, who were officers; Mrs. I. Minchweiler, Mrs. B. Eppstein, Mrs. S. Becker, Mrs. S. Redelsheimer, Mrs. B. Lauferty, Mrs. A. Oppenheimer, Mrs. B. Falk, Mrs. M. Graff, Mrs. B. Fisher, Mrs. A. Heilbronner, Mrs. L. Wolf, Mrs. Philip Meyerson, Mrs. Dr. Rosenthal, Mrs. M. Lamley, Mrs. D. Sax, Mrs. V. Jacobson, Mrs. E. Rosenthal, Mrs. F. Lessman, Mrs. B. Zekind, Mrs. R. Redelsheimer.

"We were not familiar with parliamentary law, but our fundamental principles were harmony and peace, to practice ben-evence and charity in its true sense. We followed the dictates of Job—to be an eye to the blind, an ear to the deaf, provide for the needy, welcome the stranger to be at home with us. The call of distress was answered to the extent of our funds. We did not know the trained nurse of today. We individually devoted ourselves day and night to the sick and afflicted. We were all young wives, and youth knows no hardships. They were willing hands and tender hearts, those of your mothers.

Progress is Noted.

"The obligations were five cents weekly; later $3 a year. An increase of membership to thirty-three is found in the twenty-fifth report, the silver anniversary of the organization, which was celebrated most elegantly with a banquet in Arion hall. Every member and her entire family participated. Then fifteen of the charter members were present, five being absent and three deceased. The exercises opened with prayer by Dr. Aafon. Toasts were responded to by Dr. Rosenthal; S. Lauferty, M. Frank and M. Lamley, who was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Schlesinger, who was president at the time, made a few remarks of welcome, and Mrs. M. Frank, treasurer, also made a short address of welcome. Mrs. M. Lamley, secretary, read an abstract of the history of the organization. The total receipts for the time, 1867 to 1888, were $3,481.10. This sum was expended thus: Nine hundred dollars to the orphans' asylum in Cleveland, O.; many dollars to improvements on the synagogue, and the balance in donations to various benevolent purposes. From whichever direction misfortune called it was met with willing response. A room was furnished in Hope hospital and kept for a number of years; but I will not tax your patience with details. The records honor them.

A Complimentary Social.

"On March 27, 1901, a complimentary social was given in honor of the remaining charter members. Eight answered the call. They were Mrs. A. Oppenheimer, Mrs. L. Falk, Mrs. S. Redelsheimer, Mrs. A. Heilbronner, Mrs. V. Jacobson, Mrs. S. Freiburger, Mrs. E. Rosenthal and Mrs. M. Lamley. Thirty-six members and several invited guests participated. Our worthy president, Mrs. Joseph Lohman, welcomed the honor guests most beautifully. Mrs. Oppenheimer responded in behalf of the charter members. Mrs. Lamley read a paper on the past, present and future of this organization. The closing remarks of this paper were these: 'May this association continue as a lasting monument to coming generations.' Truly we find our hopes verified. Ten years have passed and this society devoted to philanthropy, charity and sociability still exists, improved and on a solid basis. We are affiliated with every charitable institution in the city, irrespective of creed; also with the Hebrew Orphans' home in Cleveland and the Denver hospital. Every good cause is honored and the poor assisted; nurses and linens furnished the suffering. Truly we are progressing with the tide of time. I sincerely trust that future years may still find you active in the cause. When the last of us who built the structure has passed into the great beyond, let one sweet thought be passed—charity."

Dec. 1, 1911. The L. H. B. S. met in the Vestry room of the Temple, Dec. 1, 1911, with the Pres. in the chair. The ladies for the afternoon were the Mesdames E. J. Fisher, Ralph Clark, + Mrs. Frank. this purpose than charity. It was suggested by Mrs. Ida Rothchild that the Society supply the Temple with altar hangings using this money. This suggestion was put in the form of a motion by Mrs. Joseph Baron, only changing so that the Society donate the altar & Torah coverings in honor of its 50th anniversary. To the Ladies of the Hebrew Benevolent Society.

Ladies;

Although I have no report to make as to my delegate-ship to Cincinnati since there was no Ladies organization there representing benevolent institutions, yet I feel that a report of the work done by the Lady-delegates to the convention is due you.

It seems that the sisterhood organization of the different temples, all those congregations who belong to the Union of American Hebrew Congregation were represented and meetings were held almost daily touching upon the object and aims of the sisterhood. As much as I could learn the philanthropic part was not so much discussed as the religious part for which the sisterhood stands. Most every congregation of any size was represented by a committee of their respective sisterhood organization.

The main object of this sisterhood seems to do work for the congregation. The prevailing idea is to foster and aid the congregation in all its endeavors to promote its welfare, to secure good attendance to Divine services, and to aid the Sabbath School, in fact the battle cry "Back to the Synagogue" - Back to Judaism, was very prevalent at all meetings.

This sisterhood also gives financial aid for improvements to be made when necessary both in Temple and Sabbath Schools. It also favors Ladies to be on the Sabbath School board and particularly lays stress upon the observance of the different festivals for the children both on Chanukah - Purim and Pesach.

It was a wonderful meeting both in point of number and enthusiasm. It is claimed there was 500 Lady Delegates present and a great deal of work was accomplished.

Thanking you for the appointment as delegate.
